

FARLEIGH

SCHOOL

Learning Support Teacher To commence September 2018

Farleigh School is a vibrant and thriving co-educational Prep School, rated 'Excellent' in all categories at its last ISI inspection. We are committed to delivering the very best educational experience to our 450 boarding and day pupils aged 3-13. The school is situated in 70 acres of beautiful parkland in the Test Valley of Hampshire.

We have an exciting opportunity for an enthusiastic Learning Support Teacher to join our team and help support children who have educational, social or emotional needs. The role involves teaching and assessing pupils with specific learning difficulties. It requires the candidate to have experience in teaching pupils with dyslexia or dyslexic type tendencies and minor social communication issues.

This is a permanent, part-time position. The individual will work four days per week; Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

The successful candidate must have at least a Level 5 equivalent qualification in assessing and teaching pupils with Specific Learning Difficulties. An ELSA qualification would be beneficial.

For further information and an application pack, or to arrange to visit Farleigh, please contact the Human Resources department on 01264 712863 or email hr@farleighschool.com

Closing date: Friday, 13th April at 12.00 midday.

Interviews will be held as soon as mutually convenient.

Farleigh School reserves the right to appoint at any time during the recruitment process.

Farleigh School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful applicant(s) must be willing to undergo appropriate Child Protection Screening, including references from past employers and an enhanced DBS disclosure.

www.farleighschool.com