Head of Religious Education

Required January 2020 or sooner if available. Salary: MPS / UPS plus TLR 1b (£9,927)

A rare opportunity has arisen for an outstanding teacher and leader of Religious Education at Cardinal Griffin Catholic College.

Suitable candidates will:

- Be outstanding classroom practitioners;
- Have a track record of delivering good outcomes for pupils at GCSE and A-Level in Religious Education;
- Have strong leadership skills, getting the best out of the people they line manage;
- Be practicing Roman Catholics.

In return we offer:

- A strong Catholic ethos rooted in Ignatian principles and values;
- Strong support and mentoring from within the Leadership Team;
- A welcoming and supportive working environment and a friendly staff team;
- The full support of the Governing Body in developing Religious Education in the College.

The College is both a Diocesan school and an Associate Jesuit school which means we benefit from the support of both the Archdiocese of Birmingham and from the Jesuit Institute. We seek to find God in all things and aspire that all our students become men and women for others.

The College has a full time lay Chaplain who supports the Catholic life of the College, overseeing the liturgical calendar of events ; as well a Chaplaincy team made of volunteer members of staff who generously choose to contribute their time to ensure pupils have a full range of spiritual experiences, undertake charitable fundraising and give back to the community through our local Parishes.

Informal visits to the College are welcome.
